

PLEASE POST

Arraymusic is currently accepting submissions for its 2016/17 YOUNG COMPOSERS' WORKSHOP. Now in its 31st year, the workshop is designed to benefit composers who have completed their basic studies in composition. There is no age restriction.

The Young Composers' Workshop jury selects 4 participants who each create a work for small chamber ensemble. Over a four-week period in May, each composer is given one session each week to work directly with the Arraymusic Ensemble, artistic director and the workshop leader. Composers are encouraged to attend each other's sessions to derive as much benefit as possible.

The completed pieces of music, or works-in-progress, will be performed by the Arraymusic Ensemble in a public concert at the Array Space

Participants must be willing to be in Toronto during their workshop sessions and to pay for their own travel and accommodation. There is no application form. Interested composers should apply by submitting:

1. A letter of introduction
2. A curriculum vitae
3. 2 to 3 scores (paper or PDF) of previous works and, if available, corresponding recordings on CD, USB Key or as a download (Soundcloud, ftp, dropbox, Hightail to demonstrate the applicant's ability to compose for chamber ensemble.
4. Applications must include a processing fee of $25.00. This fee may be paid by cheque, money order or online through e-transfer or paypal to: admin@arraymusic.com.
